

Shauna Lee Nolan Biography:

Shauna Lee is a 26 year old singer/songwriter from Kerry. She graduated with a BA (Hons) degree in vocals from Cork School of Music. She also graduated with a Masters of songwriting from the University of Limerick. Shauna has many years of performing and singing under her belt. She is no stranger to the stage, having performed on numerous occasions in the famous Cork Opera House. She has also travelled the Emerald Isle, performing at private functions and corporate events.

At the age of 18 years old, Shauna took to the stage on live national television and performed on the live knock outs of the Voice of Ireland.

Shauna is currently working on her original music and is looking forward to sharing it with the world. Having written her first album during her Masters, she is ready to record it and released it.

Shauna heads her own function band under the name "The Shauna Lee Band". She currently has a residency in the city centre of Cork and performs most weekends.

Shauna Lee is looking forward to making new connections with other musicians around the country.